

The advertisement features a dark red background. In the top left, there is a BlackBerry logo consisting of seven red dots. To its right, the word "BlackBerry" is written in its signature font, with "Repair Service" underneath in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. Below this, the phrase "Get it Unlock Today" is written in a white, cursive script. Further down, the text "Repair Brobken LCD >>>" is displayed in a green, monospace font. At the bottom left, the website "mingwireless.com" is visible in a small, white font. Three BlackBerry phones are shown: one in the center foreground displaying a photo of a building, and two others in the background showing scenic mountain landscapes. A large, stylized red and white text overlay at the bottom right reads "Software Flashing, Hard".
